

Dear FLLT 2016 conference participants,

On behalf of the Language Institute, Thammasat University (LITU), I am pleased to invite you to our Foreign Language Learning and Teaching Conference (FLLT) at the Ambassador Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand scheduled between June 24 and 25, 2016. As part of LITU's 30th anniversary celebrations, the theme of the conference is celebrating LEARN (Language Education and Acquisition Research Network), the journal of LITU. In accordance with the aims of the LEARN journal, FLLT 2016 will be a forum for language learning researchers, both education-based and knowledge-based, to contribute findings and ideas that will lead to a greater understanding of the development of an L1/ L2.

Kindly visit our website for registration http://www.fllt2016.com/conference/call for participation.

Please feel free to contact us at learnfllt@gmail.com regarding any questions you may have. We will try to do our best to make this year's event fruitful and memorable. We look forward to welcoming you.

Sincerely,

Pamsiri Singhapreecha

Director of the Language Institute, Thammasat University and Conference Chair
